SPECIAL CAST

VIOLINIST

Kristine Kim 김경민

Graduated from Hyosung Women's University (HWU), Kristine (Kyung Min) Kim earned a Bachelor of Music with honour. Because of her performance and academic excellence, her alma mater, HWU offered full scholarship from her first year of study.

Then, she moved onto a higher education program at Pusan National University. Professor Boksoo Kim taught her to complete a master program in music and recommended her to receive a master degree upon graduation.

Professor Boksoo Kim also gave her opportunities to teach other undergraduate students as a seasonal lecturer in music performance. She helped and encouraged several undergraduate students to pursue their dreams as performers. Some of them progressed to Juilliard School, New England Conservatory, Manhattan School of Music in USA and Berlin Musikhochschule in Germany, ascertaining her teaching skills to be of a superior quality.

After earning a master degree of music, She became a lecturer in various music colleges and universities including the music school of Gyongsang National University of Music, Changsin college of music, Korea Nazarene University of Music, Gyungnam high school of Arts and Chungnam high school of Arts.

Kristine's many achievements and accomplishments include 1st prize in the Gaechun Art Festival and Gyungnam State Music Festival for school age. Solo performance with Slovak Philharmonic, Prime Philharmonic and Jinju Philharmonic.

She was a concert master of Asan Philharmonic and vice concert master of Jinju Philharmonic at age 19 and 1st violin member of Chun An Philharmonic since 2002.

In 2012, She has been appointed as the music director of the Queensland Korean Orchestra in Brisbane, Australia.

VIOLINIST

Lauren Moon 문예원

Lauren started learning the violin at the age of 6 and she is currently in grade 8 attending Brisbane State High School.

She is in first violin for the grade 10 Chamber Orchestra group at her school.

Lauren has been a member of QKYO since 2017 as a second violin leader. She has attended multiple string competitions such as the Redlands Eisteddfod Competition in 2017 and 2019, where she has received several awards.
